Red River Valley Association Scholarship Grant Program

Scholarship Grant Information Packet

The Red River Valley Association (RRVA) administers a scholarship program consisting of grants made annually to already enrolled eligible students, or those accepted for admission to: accredited colleges, universities, technical schools, and career institutions. Scholarship applications will be accepted and scholarships awarded based on criteria and guidelines established by the National Board of Directors of the Red River Valley Fighter Pilots Association.

Eligibility:

- 1) Kinship Requirement: Scholarship grant recipients must be immediate dependent (legal son, daughter or spouse) of:
 - a) A U.S. aircrew member listed as Killed in Action (KIA) or Missing in Action (MIA) from any combat situation involving U.S. military from August 1964 (Vietnam Era) through the present; or
 - b) A U.S. aircrew member killed as the result of performing aircrew duties during a non-combat mission; or
 - c) A RRVA member who is currently in good standing or was in good standing at the time of their death.
- 2) Kinship Not Required: To provide assistance in the education of persons in the fields related to aviation and space (Kinship to deceased aviator not required)

Rules:

1. Selections are made on the basis of financial need, demonstrated academic achievement, college entrance examinations, and accomplishments in school, church, civic, and social activities.
2. The scholarship grants cover tuition, fees, books, room, and board.
3. Funds are sent directly to the student's college of choice for disbursement.
4. The primary intent of the RRVA Scholarship Grant program is to provide financial assistance primarily for full-time academic pursuits. However, on a case by case basis, financial support for part-time studies will be assessed.
5. RRVA funds are to be used for tuition, fees, books, supplies, room and board as set forth in the student's annual budget prepared by the FAA
6. The scholarship grant award will be an amount determined by the student's demonstrated need, available funding, and priorities established by the RRVA and administered by the Scholarship Committee.
7. Scholarship grants are for one academic year—defined as starting with the Fall Semester (Aug/Sep) and ending after the next calendar year's summer Session (Jul/Aug).
8. Requests for the scholarship grant applications may be made anytime during a given year. However, completed applications must be received not later than May 15th in order to be considered for scholarship assistance during that academic year. Applications received after the deadline will be refused.
9. All applicants are required to sign and abide by the RRVA Scholarship Agreement.

Red River Valley Association Scholarship Grant Program

Scholarship Agreement

The following agreement describes a partnership agreement between the Red River Valley Association (RRVA) and the applicant for a RRVA Scholarship Grant and/or counseling services.

The RRVA agrees to provide the following services:

1. Identify applicant eligibility: RRVA Scholarship Grant recipients must be an immediate dependent (legal son, daughter or spouse) of:
 - a. A U.S. military aircrew member listed as Killed in Action (KIA) or Missing in Action (MIA) from any combat situation involving U.S. military from August 1964 (Vietnam Era) through the present; or
 - b. A military aircrew member killed as the result of performing aircrew duties during a non-combat mission; or
 - c. A RRVA member who is currently in good standing or was in good standing at the time of their death.Selections are made on the basis of financial need, demonstrated academic achievement, college entrance examinations, and leadership accomplishments in school, church, civic, and social activities. Scholarship applications will be accepted and scholarships awarded based on criteria and guidelines established by the National Board of Directors of the RRVA.
2. Assess a new student's academic record of eligibility to participate in the program by means of reviewing the student's academic achievement as demonstrated through high school transcripts and SAT (or equivalent) test results.
3. Assure that students attend eligible institutions, which include colleges, universities, vocational-technical and career institutions.
4. Provide academic counseling on selection of college, course work, and programs of study or special educational needs including computer requirements at the institution.
5. Support full-time and part-time studies when justified.
6. Support students who commence their post-secondary education by the age of 30 with grant funding. Applicants who have been or are active military personnel will have the age limit extended to 40.
7. Establish the student's cost of education including tuition, fees, room and board, books, supplies, transportation, and other expenses as set forth in the student's annual budget.
8. Evaluate a student's maximum scholarship award annually.
9. Evaluate a student's academic progress and notify the student of academic suspension/probation status.
10. Evaluate a student's community service/leadership achievements.

Red River Valley Association Scholarship Grant Program

The candidate for the RRVA Scholarship Grant and financial aid advising services must:

1. Complete a RRVA Scholarship Grant application, documentation and color photo, 8x10 size (send via email or as attachment). Application will not be processed until photo is received.
2. Understand that all documents are due in the RRVA financial aid advisor's office by stated deadline dates to realize maximum scholarship funds. A failure to do so will result in an automatic reduction of the applicant's maximum grant of ten percent (10%) per week until all documents are received. Further, no scholarship funds will be disbursed until the proper paperwork has been received.
3. Provide a written notification of any funds that will be made available to pay for the cost of attendance at the selected post secondary institution. (i.e.: veterans benefit, private scholarship funds, organization funds like the USO, etc.)
4. If applying as a high school graduate or with a GED, an official high school transcript or GED transcript or document must be submitted with the application.
If the applicant has previously attended college, a copy of the academic transcript is required from each institution in lieu of a high school transcript or GED.
5. Provide a copy of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the U.S. Department of Education for processing by February 15th.
6. Provide a copy of the parents' (or, if married/divorced living independently, the applicant's personal/ joint) income tax returns, (for all dependent students, and student federal income tax forms) by May 15th.
7. Apply for other types of educational assistance determined to be available by the RRVA College Financial Aid Advisor. (FAA)
8. Submit a copy of the student's college bill prior to the start of each academic term. RRVA funds will not be disbursed until the student's bill is received.
9. Maintain a 2.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale. Students, who drop below a 2.0 GPA, will be placed on academic probation for one semester. Students may continue to be funded while on probation on a term-by-term basis. However, if the academic progress has not been improved to meet the minimum GPA of 2.0, then financial assistance will be terminated until the student is in compliance with the above guidelines.
10. Submit academic reports at the end of each term. At the end of each academic year, an official transcript is required to be on file with the financial aid advisor.
11. Submit a copy of the student's cumulative bill within 30 days after the end of each academic year of college.
12. Reapply each year for the RRVA Scholarship Grant and provide documentation as required to review funding for each new academic year.
13. Appeal to the RRVA Scholarship Committee in writing for consideration of unique personal circumstances.
14. Note: If all of the above is not submitted, then the applicant's folder will not be processed.
